

South Carolina State Parks
Palmetto Passport

The Palmetto Passport, is offered to seniors age 65 and older, individuals who are blind, and individuals with disabilities and residents of South Carolina at half the cost of the regular State Park Passport.

It can be purchased at any South Carolina state park or at the Park Service central office in Columbia by citizens who show proof of eligibility.

Providing the qualifying person is present, all persons occupying a vehicle with the Palmetto Passport displayed, will be admitted to state parks without additional charge of admission. A park employee may request identification of the passport holder at the time the passport is presented.

These passports cannot be purchased online. You may purchase at any South Carolina State Park office or by calling 803-734-0156. Information about other Park Passports can be found at <http://www.southcarolinaparks.com/park-passport/>.
