Please explain how these funds will be used to provide a public benefit:

The current senior center has a number of challenges for our seniors. The entrance has high steps which causes difficulty and unsafe conditions for seniors. It also has a steep Funding will be used to help in the purchase/renovations of an existing building or site preparation/construction of a senior center in Darlington County. A new facility is needed for the safety of our seniors and the expansion of services. This will allow the additional space to expand services to senior with meals, evidence based programs, activities, and additional services to assist or connect seniors with local service providers to meet the growing needs of Darlington County seniors. The community would benefit from a visible and identifiable focal point for wheelchair ramp. Our service area space is limited and restricts some activities. senior services.
